DEATH OF ARMANDO DELGADILLO

On July 11, 2021, at about 10:00pm, Armando Delgadillo passed away in Leon, Nicaragua, from Covid-19 at the age of 48. He was a medical doctor and an amazing preacher and leader in the church meeting on the campus of Nicaragua Christian School. The tremendous growth of the church there could only have been the result of the Holy Spirit working through Armando. In the seven short years he was there preaching, teaching and leading, the church grew from about 12 members to about 300 attending before the pandemic. Additionally, his legacy is the numerous young men he has mentored to become very effective leaders in the church. They are already practicing the leadership skills taught to them by Armando. He is survived by his wife, Sandra, and their two children, Odad, 14 years old, and Diego, 12 years old. Armando, we miss you terribly, and we know that your legacy will go on for many, many years to come. Thank you for the hard work and wonderful accomplishments you left behind.

CHURCH CONTINUES ON

In spite of the passing of Armando Delgadillo, minister of the Colegio Church, the congregation continues in their intentional efforts to learn and serve. Kevin and Denmar, twin nephews of Armando, communicate that the leaders of each ministry (youth, men and women) are studying five subjects: Evangelism, Apologetics, Christian Ethics, Hermeneutics and Homiletics.
